

FAQ

I'm interested in one of the facilities listed on the website. What should I do?

Contact the owner directly using the details given in the technical fact file.

I'd like to reserve a facility for exclusive use. What should I do?

Contact the owner directly using the details given in the technical fact file.

I'd like to visit one of the facilities listed on the website. What should I do?

Contact the owner directly, using the details given in the technical fact file, to arrange a visit.

What languages do facility owners speak?

Facility owners can supply information and services in English as well as in French.

Where can I get more information about the facilities listed on the website?

More information may be added as time goes on, since some facilities might introduce additional services.

Is this guide available in other languages?

This online guide is available in English and French.

This site uses cookies and gives you control over what you want to activate

Personalize

