Presentation of the equipment

Sotteville-lès-Rouen is home to Normandy's only IAAF-approved athletics track. It has hosted a top-30 international meeting every year since 1986. It hosted the 2004 French Athletics Championships and the 2007 French Disability Sport Championships. The resident club has competed at the highest level in France for 25 years and is involved in the Olympic Solidarity programme. It could play an important supporting role for delegations, including the provision of medical services.
