Sotteville-lès-Rouen Wrestling Centre

The Sotteville-lès-Rouen Wrestling Centre is one of two centres in Rouen and the surrounding area. The resident club, SSCC, has organised an international open for the past 10 years and hosts warm-ups for athletes competing in the nearby (temporary) official combat area in the stadium's multisports room, which has a capacity of up to 1,000 spectators. The resident club has competed at the highest level in France for 10 years. Through exchanges with international athletes, SSCC is renowned around the world. The men's team, crowned French D1 champions in 2017, includes two well-known names: world champion and Olympic wrestler Mélonin Noumonvi, and Moroccan international Choucri Attafi. The club could play an important supporting role for delegations, including the provision of medical services.

The spacious, leafy stadium where the centre is located includes a craft

Sports centre - Nautical stadium

Léry-Poses Leisure Park is located 1 hour from Paris and 15 minutes from Rouen. The park features a watersports arena for elite athletes, measuring 2,060 m long and 100 m wide. The complex is open to all users. Nearby (less than 1 km away), there is athlete accommodation, meeting rooms, a restaurant, and storage facilities. The arena can be accessed by water (via Lac du Mesnil) from the accommodation and restaurant. The leisure park's secluded rural setting makes it the ideal place for athletes to prepare mentally and physically. Athletes can practise both disciplines on the River Seine. The leisure park is the ideal Olympic training base, having regularly hosted the French Canoe and Kayak Sprint Championships.
